MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: 6 December 1954 Briefing of the Task Force for Intelligence Activities.

1. The only item scheduled for today was an interview with Mr. Wayne Jackson on the activities of the OCB. Mr. Jackson outlined the role of the Agency with regard to the OCB and the NSC. Colonel Lane was primarily interested in learning whether the OCB considered the combination of existing NSC Reports as U.S. National Cold War Policy or whether the OCB is purposely not prescribing a National Policy for Cold War. He specifically inquired whether, in Mr. Jackson's opinion, the OCB is giving CIA adequate direction in the way of policy so that it can operate in the Cold War. Mr. Jackson outlined the procedure for the implementation of NSC Courses of Action and the coordination with the Department of State and the Department of Defense.
